

TALKS FOR SEPTEMBER 2022

Robin Elwes: 10 September Fly Casting

A fly casting instructor since 1988, Robin will reveal to us the delicate art of fly fishing.

John Barclay: 11 September The Invention of Cricket

We are delighted that John Barclay will come and talk about the game to which his life has been dedicated. Part of the Heritage Open Days programme.

Dr Tim Hands, Headmaster: 15 September Winchester College and the invention (twice over) of the British public school

Dr Hands will explore Winchester's important role in the history of the public school. Part of the Heritage Open Days programme.

Miles Jenner: 17 September Brewing - a Divine Discovery

Beer was brewed at Winchester College from the 1390s until the very early 20th century. Join us for an evening when we celebrate the joys of beer, its history and its future. Part of the Heritage Open Days programme.

Mr Nick Mackinnon: 21 September Winchester College Football

Mr. MacKinnon needs little introduction to Wykehamists past and present. A Mathematics and English Don, a crossword compiler and poet, a Housemaster of Chawker's 1996-2009 and more - so much more.

Jessie Childs: 29 September The Siege of Loyalty House

We are delighted that Jessie Childs, the award-winning author, broadcaster and historian will be coming to speak to us about her recent book.
